DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 4 objected to because of the following informalities:
  - The term “radically” should read “radially.”
  - “A flange” should read “the flange.”

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.
3. Claims 1 – 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. Regarding claim 1, the phrase "or the like" renders the claim(s) indefinite because the claim(s) include(s) elements not actually disclosed (those encompassed by "or the like"), thereby rendering the scope of the claim(s) unascertainable. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).
5. The term "mainly" in claims 3 and 4 is a relative term, which renders the claim indefinite. The term "mainly" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention. Thus, the limitations "mainly triangular shape," (claim 3) and "a flange extends mainly radically outwards" (claim 4) are rendered indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1, 2 and 5, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Andress (USP 5,839,961). Andress discloses (see Fig. 2) all of the limitations of a similar device comprising:

- An elongated bearing sleeve (10) that is provided with outwardly extending flanges (20) or the like, said bearing sleeve has a non circular inner surface.
- The flange material and the sleeve material have such characteristics that radial forces acting on the flanges and that are directed towards the center of the sleeve is transferred to resilient deflections of the sleeve.
- At least one of the flanges extends from the bearing sleeve at a point where the inner surface is positioned at a distance from a circle that is inscribed in the inner periphery of the sleeve.
- The outer part of at least one of the flanges is provided with a hook shaped portion (30).

8. Claims 1, 3 and 4, as best understood, are rejected under 35

U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Valentine (USP 4,932,846). Valentine discloses (see marked Fig. 2 below) all of the limitations of a similar device comprising:

- An elongated bearing sleeve (50) that is provided with outwardly extending flanges (44F) or the like, said bearing sleeve has a non circular inner surface.
- The flange material and the sleeve material have such characteristics that radial forces acting on the flanges and that are directed towards the center of the sleeve is transferred to resilient deflections of the sleeve.
- The sleeve has a mainly triangular shape.
- A flange extends mainly radially outwards from each tip (50T) of the triangle.
